

Since the Biden administration kicked in, the effort to continue to build the fence was frozen. We have stacks and stacks of materials lying there, many millions of dollars' worth of materials just laying there in the various spots across the border staged to be completed.

When I visited the Arizona portion, you could see where there were maybe 50 or 100 feet of fence, and there would be an area that would be contained where it would be much, much easier for the Border Patrol to do their jobs and keep whatever problems there are funneled in fewer areas, making their task much simpler to keep track.

Instead, with the deluge of immigrants, really an invasion that is happening, their job is much, much more difficult and less about patrolling the border and more about processing.

Indeed, when I was there, they have vans to go pick people up and bring them even faster to the processing center and then turn them loose in our country.

This is a really backwards policy, and it makes me really wonder whose side is this administration on.

The needs of the American people, or some kind of political gain by having a wide-open border?

I do not understand it. The numbers are huge.

Of course, it is the numbers of people coming across as well as the illegal drugs; the fentanyl. You have heard time and time and time again the stories. I guess the press doesn't really want to report a lot of that; we hear it here and there. But the amount of people being harmed by the fentanyl getting to everything is amazing. Yet, the border remains porous.

The only State doing something about it is Texas. All those States don't really have the rights to do Federal border patrol or closure. They are at least making an effort down there to stem the tide.

We are in a state of crisis along the border. Millions cross every year with no consequence. We expect them maybe to come back for a hearing, if indeed they are eligible for an asylum hearing, but that is really naive.

So there are plenty of tools already in the law to stop it. We don't really need reform on immigration. We need to enforce the rules we have.

Yet, what is the direction we are going?

We are going to see title 42, which is able to make limitations due to the healthcare crisis because of COVID. They want to let that go to the sidelines now, getting rid of title 42.

We already have a crisis. We already have a giant wave coming in. This is just going to exacerbate it. We already have gigantic problems that will be added to by letting title 42 expire.

Every country that is a country has borders and laws on that. Why is the U.S. different now under the Biden administration and under Democrat rule that we are not allowed to enforce our borders?

And indeed, the issue, as you squish the balloon, now we are seeing an effect on the Canadian border, something that hasn't been talked about a lot.

Mexican nationals are finding that it is easier with the backlog we have on the southern border to be able to take a flight up into Canada, because they have lifted most of their restrictions on entry and exit, and come through from Canada into the United States. Those numbers are increasing dramatically.

The data reflects a 91 percent increase from the prior fiscal year, and going higher. So if it is easier to come as a Mexican national through Canada, then that is just going to continue to be a larger problem. But we already have enough to deal with on the southern border; if we would just do the job.

As President Biden said last spring, let's fill the gaps that we have. At least fill just the gaps, if you don't want to make miles and miles of fence. It will make the Border Patrol job much easier. But truly, we need to do the whole job because we are not a sovereign nation if we don't have a border, if we don't enforce it.

Now, we will get called racist. We will get called hateful. Because those are just the standard arguments these days for just about anything.

It is not that. We have a right and an obligation to enforce that and bring people over that want to come legally, with visas. That is the way to do things, not just a wide-open, porous border.

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. CUELLAR) at noon.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Margaret Grun Kibben, offered the following prayer:

Eternal God, in the words of Thomas Merton, we mourn that "all over the face of the Earth, the avarice and lust of [humanity] breed unceasing divisions among them, and the wounds that tear [humans] from union with one another widen and open out into huge wars. Murder, massacres, revolution, and hatred . . ."

Forgive us, O Lord, our proclivity for division and our inclination to allow our desires for power and our unquenched thirst for control, create discord in our families, in our communities, in our country, and among sovereign nations.

We continue to pray for the conflict in Ukraine, and we pray that the dispute for land and dominance would, by some miracle, find resolution. Remind us that such tragedy reflects our fractured human condition and our deep need for Your salvation.

Convict us each of our part in even the smallest of conflicts, that we would set aside our differences and instead strive to maintain the unity found in Your spirit. Then mend the broken bones of our families, our communities, and our country, and heal the wounds in our world.

O Lord, abolish the bow, the sword, and war from our lands, and allow all to lie down this night in safety.

In Your most holy name, we pray.

Amen.

AMERICA'S ANCHOR, JIM GARDNER

(Ms. DEAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DEAN. Mr. Speaker, for nearly half a century, legendary news anchor Jim Gardner has informed and guided Philadelphia, southeastern Pennsylvania, and south Jersey. Next week, he will retire, and I thank him for his incredible service.

Jim joined Action News in 1976 as a reporter before setting into his iconic role as the 6 and 11 p.m. anchor, becoming the longest-serving on-air personality in our region's history.

As the years changed and trust in our institutions eroded, one journalistic institution stood strong: Jim Gardner.
